

Thank you for your interest in Granite Leaders, a unique program designed for individuals who have lived experience of homelessness. To apply for the training program, please start by completing the form below. The application process for Granite Leaders allows us to collect some basic information about you while also giving us the opportunity to explain the purpose, requirements and benefits of Granite Leaders. Once we receive your application, we will contact you to provide additional details about the training, give you the opportunity to share why you are interested in Granite Leaders, answer any questions you may have, and confirm your goals are a good fit with the program design. If you have any questions about filling out the application, please email Nicole Johnson at njohnson@nhceh.org. We look forward to welcoming you to the program!
